CENTER RING AT MEDINAR

The GLSCUA Fall Convention, 2018

March 22-24, 2018 at Medinah Shrine Center 550 Shriners Drive, Addison, IL 60101 It is with great pleasure that we, the Medinah Shrine Clown Unit and Funny's Honeys cordially invite you to join us in Addison IL, for the 2018 GLSCUA Spring Convention. The theme of which is "Center Ring at Medinah". The convention will run from March 22-24, 2018 at Medinah Shrine Center, located at 550 Shriners Drive, Addison, IL, 60101. Hotel reservations can be made at Hilton Garden Inn, located at 551 N. Swift Rd. in Addison. For reservations, call (630) 691-0500 and tell them you're with the Great Lakes Shrine Clown Unit Association and receive the rate of $95 per night.

Here are a few of the highlights of what we have planned.

Thursday at 12:30, we will be leaving Medinah by bus to take a tour of the Chicago Shriners Hospital for Children. If you've never been there, it's well worth the trip. If you have been there, then it's well worth a return visit, because they are always making it even better. The tour will be conducted by our Marshalls Unit. They have said that any clowns are welcome to come in makeup. Why not visit some patients and brighten their day while we are there?

Normally, I would not list a board meeting as one of the highlights of the convention, but; while the meeting is going on, the Funny's Honeys will be hosting a meet and greet in the hospitality room. It will be a great way to meet the Ladies of the other units and make new friends.

After the Board Meeting, our own Popcorn the Clown will be hosting a class entitled "The Secrets of Competing Revealed". Among his many awards, is a 2-time winner of the GSLCUA Clown of the Year Award, has taken second place in Skit and the Tramp category at World Clown and is a member of the Midwest Clown Association Hall of Fame. (He knows a thing or three about competing.) He'll be giving tips on how to compete and rack up the points. There's always a point or two that is useful for everyone, but; first timers especially are encouraged to attend.

Thursday night, we are packing up the buses again and heading to Medieval Times in Schaumburg for dinner. If you've never been there, check out their website at http://www.medievaltimes.com. It is a fun time.

Things will be off to an early start Friday morning with costume & makeup, face painting and balloon competition. Please note that if we complete costume & makeup early, we will go straight into the next competitions. In addition to the usual categories, we'll also have a Powder Puff category available to any of the clown's Ladies. All judging in this category will be handled the same as the First Timer's Category in the GLSCUA rules.

On a somber note; at noon, we will be holding the Black Camel Luncheon, where we remember and honor our fallen. We are requesting that the units contact us with the names of any passed brother clowns or their ladies from the past year. We also request that you send a photo (preferably digital) as we wish to include their image in the memorial.

After the Black Camel Ceremony, the clowns will hold our general membership meeting while the ladies get to escape and do more fun things. The Funny's Honeys will be presenting, "Non Circum Me, Non Simias", better known as The Funny's Honeys Degree. It is a side degree specifically for the Ladies of clowns with its ceremony and symbolism derived from what it's like to be married to a Shrine Clown.

Afterwards they will have a painting and wine party hosted by If Walls Could Talk. The instructor will be starting with the assumption that nobody in the group has any experience with painting on canvas and will be starting from scratch. This type of event has been hosted several times at Medinah and everyone that has attended has had a fun time. At the end of the session, you will have a canvas painting suitable for framing, and along the way; there will be plenty of wine and laughs.

Friday night you are invited to join us for a Medinah fish fry, catered by Medinah Banquets. If you have never had the pleasure of experiencing a Medinah fish fry, I assure you that it is second to none. If fish really isn't your thing, the Oasis, which is also catered by Medinah Banquets, will also be available, or you can go out on your own experience the cuisine of Addison. (I'm not being sarcastic – we've got some good restaurants.) Mr. Ash, owner of Ash's Magic Shop and a Chicago legend in the field of magic will be providing entertainment at the fish fry. You will not want to miss this.

After dinner, we will be having a free-for-all. How is that different than the board meeting or general membership meeting you may be asking? A free-for-all is like a balloon jam, but not only will we be doing balloons – bring whatever you like. This is free time to get together with members with similar interests and share your knowledge, whether it is juggling, magic, scrap booking, face painting, or just conversing.

Saturday Morning at 9:30 is the main event. We are opening our doors to membership, their children and local youth groups for clown show that we (meaning all of us) will be putting on. Skit competition will be embedded into this in the following way; if you want your act to be part of the competition (i.e. judged), simply let us know beforehand. We will alternate competition and non-competition acts to keep the show moving while allowing the judges to do their work. The audience will have no idea who is competing or if anyone is competing. The goal is to entertain the children.

After the show, we'll be doing a walk-around to meet the kids. When the kids leave, they'll be cast a vote for "The Children's Choice Award". The criterion is simple; which clown did you like the most? Anything goes for the walk-around; parade gags, face painting, balloons, magic, or just a smile and a handshake.

Nothing works up an appetite like a performance. We are fortunate that the Funny's Honeys will be providing lunch for us that day in the hospitality room. They're awesome!

After lunch we'll be hosting a few more education sessions. Please refer to the schedule and watch for updates on the GLSCUA website (http://www.glscua.net) or the Medinah Shrine Clown website (http://www.medinahshrineclowns.org). We will be having sessions on face painting, magic, puppetry and parading. Ladies are absolutely invited to any sessions, however; if you prefer, we will have transportation available to Woodfield Mall in Schaumburg. It is the largest shopping center in the Chicago area with nearly 300 stores and over 2.2 million square feet of glorious shopping.

That evening we will be having our end of convention GLSCUA banquet hosted by Medinah Banquets and I can assure you that we are pulling out all the stops. Afterwards, the hospitality room will be open.

Sunday morning we'll have some donuts and coffee in the hospitality room and hope that you'll stop by before you hit the road.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Carl Molyneaux First Vice President, GLSCUA (630)-439-5320 bcmoly@att.net
